

Smart Fashion Recommender Application

Problem Statement

Question	Description
What is the issue?	Some problems when finding the customer's wanted product in the web applications.
Where does the issue occur?	When a user try to find the suitable product based on their needs
Why is it important that we fix the problem?	The main important to fix the problem is to save the users time and access the website fast and place orders even more than usual
What solution to solve this issue?	We can solve the issue by using our chatbot, that can show search results and recommended products based on the users interest
What methodology used to solve the issue?	Using advanced filter search based on customer details and intrests to avoid issue